RS ASSESSMENT FROM HODDER EDUCATION

Read this poem to yourself.

My Week

In the sun
I had good fun.

In the snow
There was nowhere to go.

In the wind
I ran and grinned.

In the rain
I was bored again.

In the thunder
I stared in wonder.

In the cloud
I was allowed
To go out and play,
But the day was grey.

by Jack

SHARKS

There are lots of different sharks. They live in different parts of the world. The smallest shark is the dwarf lantern shark which is only 17 cm long – about as long as a pencil. The whale shark is the biggest fish in the sea. Whale sharks grow up to 7 metres long, which is longer than a bus.

Reef sharks

Reef sharks live in warm water near coral reefs. They grow up to 2 metres long. They eat fish and octopus. They don't usually hurt people, but if divers try to feed them sandwiches, the shark will sometimes bite the hand as well.

Grandpa Pat

Jen was happy. She was going to see Grandpa Pat.

Grandpa Pat was very old and he lived with Uncle Pete's family, but Jen enjoyed her weekly chat with him. She liked telling him about her week and hearing him talk about when he was a little boy.

Mum took Jen to Grandpa Pat's home, then Mum went to do some shopping. Grandpa Pat's room smelled different from Jen's house. Jen liked Uncle Pete and she always said hello to him on her way to Grandpa Pat's room.

Jen knocked at Grandpa Pat's door, then she pushed open the door and ran into Grandpa Pat's arms. Grandpa Pat had a special smell that no one else in the world had. Jen sat on his knee and started telling him about her week.
